SYNOPSIS

Based upon true accounts, this is the story of three siblings in the swirl of life's turnarounds, exaggerations, and humor. The film is a mosaic of three tragically pictured stories about two sisters Anna (16), Jana (26) and their oldest stepbrother Vladimír (35). They all seek for the best partner, however, their pursuit only leads them to the hell that life gives time. They unconsciously keep on running into each other, repeating the same mistakes.

At their father's funeral, where several ex-lovers of his take part, Jana (Tatiana Vilhelmova) and Anna (Karolína Kaiserova) learn about the existence of their half-brother Vladimír (Jan Budar). The younger of them Anna, who desires to be more than just plain and imperfect, eagerly awaits her first romance. Her sister Jana is on the verge of a nervous breakdown trying to keep her marriage with womanizer Jan (Ondrej Vetchy) working. Newly found brother Vladimír neurotically seeks himself and a path to his daughter that he had lost in divorce. This mosaic of individual destinies, including that of the sisters' mother, is put together bit-by-bit giving the audience a show sparkling with wicked humor.
